

Crescent Barton is an up-and-coming Canadian author, content creator, computer technician and actor. They have played supporting roles in plays done by the Nanaimo Theater Group, as well as acting 3 separate times in the John Barsby Drama program. They are currently working on a medieval slice-of-life novel, which they hope to publish, and have won 2 awards for Excellence in English from their 9th and 11th grade high-school teachers. They have a small YouTube channel, with 73 subscribers, and one of their videos has gained over 1,000 views. They have experience in both managing and maintaining computer systems, and have even published a website documenting some of their tech projects and knowledge (<https://therubywitch.neocities.org>).

Crescent lives in Nanaimo British Columbia primarily with their mother, 3 younger siblings, pet cat and pet dog.